DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

I. Claims 1-23, 43 and 44 drawn to an implant, classified in class 128 subclass 848.

- i. Species A – claims 1-14, 24
- ii. Species B – claims 15-19, 24
- iii. Species C – claims 20-23, 24
- iv. Species D – claims 43 and 44

II. Claims 25-32 and 38-42, drawn to a method or treating, classified in class 128, subclass 898.

- i. Species E – claims 25-32
- ii. Species F – claims 38, 41 and 42
- iii. Species G – claims 39, 41 and 42
- iv. Species H – claims 40-42

III. Claims 33-37, drawn to an implant system, classified in class 606, subclass 12

- i. Species I – claims 33, 36 and 37
- ii. Species J – claims 34, 36 and 37
- iii. Species K – claims 35-37

2. Inventions (I & II) and inventions (III and II) are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product. See MPEP § 806.05(h). In the instant case the method can be used by an implant other than of invention I or invention III.

3. Inventions I and III are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because it is not required that the implant of the implant system comprise the same materials as that of invention I. The subcombination has separate utility such as being places in portion of the body other than the pharyngeal structure.

The examiner has required restriction between combination and subcombination inventions. Where applicant elects a subcombination, and claims thereto are subsequently found allowable, any claim(s) depending from or otherwise requiring all the limitations of the allowable subcombination will be examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. See MPEP § 821.04(a). Applicant is advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of, a claim that is allowable in the present application, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application.

Upon election of either invention I, invention II, or invention III; the applicant must make a further election regarding species of each invention.

4. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species: species A-D of invention I, species E-H of invention II, and species I-K of invention III. The species are independent or distinct because the each group of inventions does not require the same limitations.

5. As to the species of invention I, species A requires a specific material makeup not required in that of species B, species C, or species D.

6. As to the species of invention II, species E does not require providing at least one tool and/or instructions and required by species F, species G, or species H. Furthermore each of species F-H, require different limitations regarding placing the implant through a percutaneous access path, forming a surgical flap, and forming a surgical pocket.

7. As to the species of invention III, the method requires different steps of forming a percutaneous access path, forming a surgical flap, and forming a surgical pocket.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claims generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Conclusion

8. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
